

Cash Will Save Hall Killer, Briton Writes to Shylock

By SHYLOCK HOMES

(Copyright, 1926, The New York Evening GRAPHIC. Reproduction prohibited.)

"Watson," I said today when my old friend of my Baker Street lodgings in London came into my New York apartment, "here's a letter from 'home.' I then handed Watson a letter from Nathaniel Menkin, 5 Tillatson St., Hall Lane, Liverpool.

"Why, Homes," he said, "do you remember that case that took us to Liverpool in—"

"Yes, my dear Watson," I replied. "But that is another matter. My whole thoughts are now on the baffling Hall-Mills murder. Mr. Menkin sets down that he is late of the Military Foot Police and during the war was a Secret Service soldier. He names the persons who he thinks are guilty—but says 'money will circumvent justice.'"

Sara Kirk, box 1653, Miami, Fla., says two men are guilty. She exonerates Mrs. Hall.

The pendulum of public opinion as reflected in the letters from my readers today swings away from the ones under arrest.

Robert H. Pooler of 145 Van Reipen Ave., Jersey City, in a splendid bit of deduction, puts a man connected with Dr. Hall's church under suspicion.

Niels McGregor, 152 West 142d St., sets down "that there will never by a conviction—the case will always be 'unsolved.'"

Ted Waldman of 1399 St. John's Place, Brooklyn, asks, "Was Mrs. Mills in love with any one else?"

Adele T. Adkins, apartment South 4, 65 Central Park West, sends a "solution" that is a fine bit of deduction.

Frank Meade Winchell, Pine Hill, Ulster county, N. Y., believes the authorities know who the guilty ones are.

Delphin Lebez, 11120 111th St., Ozone Park, L. I., thinks that "others than the ones accused are implicated."

Remember, I am giving $1,000 in awards for the first CORRECT solutions of this baffling case that reach me. Communications must be signed.

Remember—this is my offer. A "Shower of Gold!" The first correct solution will receive $500. Then additional rewards of $250, $100, $50 and $10 until the $1,000 is exhausted.

The CORRECT solution will be based on court findings. You may send in as many solutions as you wish. None received AFTER OCTOBER 2. Address your letter to SHYLOCK HOMES, The GRAPHIC, 25 City Hall Place, Manhattan.
